

CASE IH
WISCONSIN LIVESTOCK BREEDERS ASSOCIATION
MASTER STOCKMAN AWARD APPLICATION

The Master Stockman Award is one of the most prestigious awards given to junior livestock project exhibitors and is generously sponsored by Case IH. The Master Stockman Award recognizes knowledge, skill, leadership, and excellence within beef, sheep and swine project work.

Master Stockman Award Requirements & Rules:

- 1) All Master Stockman applicants and/or their immediate families must be paid 2015 WLBA members. Membership applications can be found online at www.wisconsinlivestockbreeders.com and may be sent with your application.
- 2) The Master Stockman Scholarship is available to high school seniors who have graduated in 2014 and young adults age 19 years or younger by January 1st, 2015.
- 3) Applicants must have participated in one or more of the following events: the WLBA Spring Preview, the Wisconsin Livestock Show Camp or the Summer Spectacular Show a minimum of three out of the last five years.
- 4) Master Stockman applicants must choose and apply within one species only; beef, sheep or swine.
- 5) Previous Master Stockman winners within any species are not eligible to reapply.
- 6) Previous Honorable Mention Master Stockman winners may reapply within any species; as long as they meet all requirements listed above, but they will be eligible to receive a monetary award no more than twice.

Master Stockman Scholarship Process:

- An original hard copy of the Master Stockman Award application AND (3) copies should be mailed to the WLBA office with a postmark date of no later than January 31, 2015.
- An electronic copy of your application and a scanned picture of yourself should be emailed to the WLBA office by no later than 11:59 pm on January 31, 2015. Please email to alfhamp@centurytel.net.
- Up to a maximum of 10 applications, based on the quality of applications submitted, regardless of species, will be chosen to advance to the interview level held at the WLBA Annual Meeting on March 28, 2015 at the UW-Arlington Research Station Public Events facility. All applicants must be able to interview in person on March 28, 2015 if chosen.
- From the applicants interviewed, (3) $1000 Master Stockman Award winners and (2) $250 Honorable Mention Master Stockman Awards will be chosen and recognized that day.
- Checks will be awarded at the Wisconsin State Fair by Case IH.

Master Stockman Application Tips:

- Applicants should answer each question as it pertains to their project as completely as possible. Your application will be judged on the depth of the knowledge of your project and your documented involvement and leadership shown in the livestock industry.
- Photos are not required, but are highly encouraged to document and enhance your application. Please scan photos directly into your electronic application.
- Criteria for the interview process will include personal appearance (you are encouraged to dress as if you are participating in a job interview), knowledge of your project, presentation and knowledge of your application, and the ability to communicate and answer questions.

Sincerely,

Jill C. Alf
WLBA Executive Director
