GENERAL SHOW RULES:

All animals are to be fed, fitted, entered and shown by the exhibitor. Family members and other junior exhibitors are allowed to help. In case of an emergency, another junior exhibitor may show said animals upon prior consent of the species chairman.

Registration papers must be in the name of the exhibitor or in his/her parents or farm name.

An exhibitor may enter animals in any species. Substitute entries WILL be allowed within species and class-please contact the WLBA office as soon as possible with all substitution requests.

There will be no re-weighing of market animals.

Materials may not be used to change the color of an animal. If natural color is altered the animal will be disqualified. There will be no painting of sheep to either alter or enhance color.

No medicines/drugs can be given to an animal at the show without a vets or species chairman's approval.

Any animal that has been altered through surgical procedures will be disqualified and the exhibitor's status at future shows will be determined by the show committee.

There will be no smoking in the barns, use of controlled substances, or alcohol on the grounds by either exhibitors or adults.

Interpretation of rule infraction rests with the show committee which has the authority to bar an exhibitor from exhibiting at this show or other WLBA shows. The Executive Director will serve in an advisory position on any rule infraction.

All pens, stalls, and fitting areas must be cleaned thoroughly before exhibitors leave. Manure and bedding should be cleaned from pens and moved to the center aisle. Check your exhibitor letter for details. A clean-up charge will be assessed to all violators.

SHOWMANSHIP: Showmanship age break downs as of January 1, 2014.

BEEF RULES:

Exhibitor may show up to 5 heifers and 3 steers. Heifers must be born after September 1, 2012. Steers must be born after January 1, 2013. Heifers must be purchased by May 1, 2014. Heifers without papers, Crossbred heifers, or lower percentage heifers will be shown as a Commercial breed. An exhibitor may exhibit one managerial heifer upon filing appropriate paperwork.

Purebred heifers must be 75% or more purebred and must carry an ear tattoo corresponding to the registration papers. Heifers will be shown by breed with classes determined after all heifers have been checked in. Exhibitors may also enter cow/calf pairs. Steers must carry a state or county fair tag. Steers will be shown by breed and weight. Purebred Angus and Hereford steers need registration papers in the exhibitor's name. If there are less than 5 steers in one breed, that breed will show in Any Other Breeds. No dairy steers will be shown. In case of a question on a steer's breed purity, the steer will be blood tested at the expense of the person questioning the purity. The testing expenses will be refunded if the complaint is proven correct. No steers with horns longer than 1" from the hair line will show. Loosely attached scurs are permitted to show.

No butt fans allowed.

SWINE RULES:

Barrows and gilts are eligible for entry, minimum weight 230# to maximum 290#. Each exhibitor may show up to 6 pigs. Eight pigs may be identified; ear notch/tag number should be provided on entry. Market hogs will be shown by weight, in either the Purebred or Crossbred Divisions. Registration papers are required for the Purebred Division. Breeding gilts will be shown by age in either the Purebred or Crossbred Division. All pigs are required to provide proof of on the farm veterinary inspection papers.

SHEEP RULES:

Exhibitors may show 4 ewes, and 4 rams in each breed they are showing and a total of 6 market lambs. Crossbred lambs are considered a breed. Exhibitors must provide registration papers on breeding sheep. All sheep must carry an ear tag corresponding to registration papers. Ewes without proper papers and crossbred ewes will show as a commercial and/or wether type ewe. Rams without proper papers will not show. Ewes, rams, and lambs must be purchased by August 1, 2014.

Ewe/Ram Classes: Yearling Ewe & Rams must be born after September 1, 2012. Winter lambs: born between Jan 1-Feb 15, 2014. Spring lambs: born on or after February 16, 2014. Fall lambs: born between Sept 1-Dec 31, 2013.

NEW in 2014: All commercial ewe lambs will be shown by weight, not age. Please plan to bring them through the scale upon check-in.

Sheep showing symptoms of any contagious disease will not be permitted to show. ALL sheep (ewes, rams and market lambs) need scrapie tags. No drenching and muzzles are allowed. Infractions will result in disqualification.

Two exhibitors are allowed to show breeding sheep only-exhibitors must be at the head of the animal being shown.

Market Lamb Classes: Lambs must be born after January 1, 2014. Lambs will be shown by breed and weight. If there are less than 5 lambs in one breed, that breed will show as Any Other Breeds. No patch shearing will be allowed on lambs. Lambs must not have more than one-half inch of wool. No tubes or blankets allowed on lambs during weigh-in. Lambs will be allowed over the scale one time. Weight and breed determination is final.

Lead Class: Open to all exhibitors. Ewes or wethers may be used in this class. A Lead Class animal must be owned by the immediate family. Entrants shall wear attire made of wool fabrics. The class shall be judged on percentages as follows; 40% on exhibitor attire, 30% on presentation of sheep-showmanship, 30% on personality and knowledge of project of exhibitor during interview. Entrants shall provide the sheep chairman with a lead class entry form by no later than the 7:30-9:00 a.m. check-in.

JACKPOT AWARDS: $100 will be awarded to the Grand Champion Heifer & Steer, the Grand Champion Overall Breeding Sheep & Market Lamb and the Grand Champion Overall Hog. $50 will be awarded to the Reserves in each of these final drives.

DEADLINES: Entry deadline and fees will be strictly enforced. Exhibitors who submit entries that are not postmarked by July 31, 2014 will be required to pay a double entry fee. Late entries will be accepted until August 14th with paid double entry fees. No day of show entries will be accepted.

EXHIBITOR LETTERS: All exhibitor letters will be posted online by Monday, August 11th at www.wisconsinlivestockbreeders.com. Please make sure you read/print your exhibitor letter for last minute show details.
